THE GLOBAL
HEALTH AND SAFETY
CONFERENCE
2025

Advancing Health and Safety in Tanzania: A Collaborative Approach to Safer Workplaces in Africa: Is organized by Tanzania Occupational Health and Safety Association (TOHASA)

BACKGROUND AND RATIONALE

With rapid industrial expansion and urbanization in Africa, there is a critical need to align workplace safety standards with global best practices. This conference, hosted in Tanzania, serves as a platform for knowledge exchange and strategic collaboration between health and safety professionals, policymakers, and major corporations. It underscores the commitment of African nations and global stakeholders to create safer working environments that protect both employees and communities, fostering sustainable development and economic growth.
